

JOKE FUELED, CHARACTER DRIVEN

DWIGHT YORK COMEDIAN

"I hope you like jokes" may seem an absurd way for a comedian to begin a show but those are the words that Dwight York uses to introduce himself to his audience each night. Then the joke-slinging begins and never ends until York says "goodnight" a couple hundred perfect one-liners later.

York has been a favorite guest on the The Bob and Tom Show, was featured on their CD You Guys Rock and has been heard regularly on XM Sirius Satellite Radio. Recently he appeared on the main-stage at The Legendary Buffalo Chip Campground for the 2009 Sturgis Motorcycle Rally.

"I was homeless for awhile.
I didn't want anyone to know
so I slept in front of a Ticket Master."
